Mr. Chairman, I offer my support to you at this critical time in your career. Please do not resign. We need your valued leadership in this city. We have all erred and fell short of the glory of God. Hang in there because this too shall pass. At the risk of sounding racial, it seems like a witch hunt against black councilman. Although, Harry Thomas deserved his punishment.

Dear Kwame,

Please know that I support you and that I wish the best for you and your family. I know this year has been difficult but you have earned deserved praise for your handling of the Council Chair duties and your ability to pull the Council together after some fractured episodes. I expect the investigation and grand jury to exonerate you, but whatever the future holds I know you will do what is best for your family and I have no doubts that you are where you should be. Your talent and skills are serving the city well and while you could do many things very successfully your capacity for city leadership is remarkable.

All the best,
Nancy

PS Please let me know if there is anything I can do for you.

Hi Kwame,

I don't know if you remember me but we took a chemistry class at Morgan in the early nineties. My name is Sam and I had just arrived from my motherland Ethiopia. You were nice enough to show me, a new-comer, around Baltimore.

I know you're a busy man but I just wanted to say I am proud of you and thank you for the old days.

Kwame,

Stay calm, and the people got your back. Remember Ali (rope and dope) strategy to beat Foreman.

Take care!

Greetings Chairman Brown,

I am just writing to express my surprise that you might even have been thinking about retiring from your Council seat. It seems to me you are getting kudos for handling a difficult budget and making your own policies. I am particularly pleased that you are moving ahead with resources for middle schools.

I hope that whatever difficulties are of concern will be resolved positively and soon.

With best regards and wishes for a better second half of the year.

Dear Chairman Brown,

As a former supporter of yours, I am incredibly disappointed to learn of your continued inability to behave as a responsible, professional adult. You have made our DC government the laughing stock of the nation. Thank you for further spreading the image of DC government being out of control and enabling racists to say that Blacks cannot govern. What message are you sending to DC youth? That people can get away with murder and not be held accountable for their actions. Get over yourself and get out of the way. It is time to step down and let someone with experience and professionalism govern.
